EXTENSION ACTIVITIES

Writing Practice:

Following the crossword, have your students write a story in the past tense by using as many of the past tense verbs as they can. You might want to stimulate ideas by providing a title (for example: "My Day at the Beach" or "My Last Weekend", etc.).

Speaking Practice:

Alternatively, have your students sit together in small groups; each student takes a turn and uses a past tense verb to make a sentence that, put together with their partners' sentences, tells a story.
